She shouted for her husband to stop. He did not, but turned quickly into Fifth avenue, down to One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street, and then through Mount Morris Park to Madison avenue. Wife in Close Pursuit.

Mrs. Spiehler, in her slight attire and with her luxuriant hair flowing behind her in the wind, was in close pursuit all the way. At Madison avenue several police joined the crowd which had col-lected, and saw Spiehler mount a southbound electric car.

and the conductor signalled the car to stop. Mrs. Spiehler, followed by a crowd of gamins seldom seen in Har-lem, arrived in half a minute, leaped into the car and as soon as she saw the prisoner screamed:

"That's not him. I don't know this man. Where is my husband?" Policeman Brennan, long known as a most gallant officer, released his hold en the man's throat and vowed he did not know where the missing husband night be, but he added:

Gallant Brennan!

"Lady, this is too cold a morning for you to be out with them pare shoulders and arms." And forthwith he doffed his own great blue coat, covered the lady's shoulders and escorted her back to her home. When Brennan made his report to the East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street station he said that Mrs. Splehler had informed him that she and her hus hand had their first quarrel to-day and that he had threatened to shoot her. "I ran into the back parlor," Brennan says she told him, "and then he ran out of the house. I was afraid I would not see him again and followed him as far as I could. I guess he jumped out other side of the car when we reached it. I hope he'll come back."

BORAXOLOGY

The happiness of life isn't all in the parlor-it isn't in the pretty part of life - there's another, a homely happiness. The happiness of having the clothes white, or the dishes washed clean, or the housework goeasily and quickly. Dozens of the things you do in everyday home work make up a large part of life's happiness. BORAX has a very close relation to happiness, because it has a very close relation to housework. BORAX doubles the cleansing power of soap and water. You'll be astonished to see how much easier and quicker you can wash things by adding a little to the water. AN IMPORTANT SALE OF

The Pease Piano Co. announce for this week a special sale of 50 used pianos such as has never been held before in this city. The prices are the lowest yet recorded for RELIABLE pianos.

THE REASON: A stock of used pianos that overtaxes our storage facilities, accumulated from sources that give positive assurance of their high quality. The Pease pianos offered are nearly all from our rental stock, and we can tell you to a day the use each one The pianos of other makes come to us mostly from exchanges taken on our new small grand pianos from those who were not dissatisfied with their pianos, but wished to exchange an upright for a grand.

THE RESULT: An offering of 50 excellent pianos at prices that have never before been heard of for like quality. THERE IS NOT AN INSURABLE PROPERTY plane in the lot. The following is a partial list of makes and prices offered:	lale Price. (

11111111	New England Upright $275.00 Knabe	$80.00 Chickering Upright. $450.00

Every piano is in excellent order and has been thoroughly reno-vated both inside and out. Pianos are all marked at the cash prices, but if desired partial payments from $5 per month up (according to the piano) can be had for just the interest upon unpaid balances extra.

Every piano delivered free within 50 miles of New York, with stool and cover to match, and kept in tune one year free. The standing of the Pease Co. and their reputation for fair dealing should sell the 50 pianos within 24 hours. We invite your inspection.

CASTORIA THE SALE OF TOP COATS

Everybody recognizes it as a sale of supreme importance. We never before organized such a comprehensive unloading-never before accepted such a loss in the very height of the season. The simple fact is that we made too many. The mistake is ours—the advantage yours. Hundreds of our own well-made Top Coats, hundreds of our own well-made Rain Coats at less, we believe, than any living person ever knew such goods to be sold for:

$20 Top Coats $20 Rain Coats $18 Top Coats $18 Rain Coats $16 Rain Coats

every man's taste.

There are blacks, there are Oxfords, there are coverts, there are the richest of this season's mixtures, as well as plain fabrics. There are Long Coats, Medium Coats, Short Boxy Coats. Coats with broad Athletic Shoulders, Coats that are swagger in cut as well as in fabric. Every man's size and

Fancy Vests The same conditions lead to an offer of 700 Fancy Vests, 65 cents values, $1.50, $2, $2.50, all at

This Great Sale will continue daily until the stock is reduced to normal size. All that we ask-and this we ask in simple fairness-is that you put this offer to the inexpensive test of investigation. It will pay you to come even a very long journey. It will pay you to buy for next season's wear.
